We regularly talk about how our Family Promise, then Salem Interfaith Hospitality Network, started with Doug Dobson, a pastor at Holy Cross Lutheran Church. In 1997 he saw there were about 1,000 students experiencing homelessness in the Salem-Keizer school district and sent a letter to every congregation in town.

There wasn't much response to that first letter, but after two years our faith community came together and started hosting families in their place of worship.

From the start, we've partnered with the national organization to utilize their proven model to help our neighbors in need. Watch the video on our website to learn how Family Promise became a nationwide endeavor to help families with housing insecurity.

You can help us continue to make an impact in our community! Every dollar helps us in our mission to end child homelessness. Please visit www.familypromisemwv.org if you would like to donate.
